

Arvīds Zvagulis

is one of the leading violinists in Latvia, second violin concertmaster of the Latvian National Symphony Orchestra.

Arvīds studied the violin at the Jāzeps Vītolas Latvian Music Academy under Andris Baumanis, He also studied in an exchange program in Cologne.

In parallel with playing in the quartet Quadra and working in an orchestra, regularly helps realize various chamber music ideas, participating in festivals throughout Latvia and beyond.